NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

Standard Condition #1 The defendant failed to follow the instructions of the probation officer.

On January 9, 2008, Mr. Herman was granted permission by the Court to travel to Pratta Island, Chuuk State, Federated States of Micronesia (FSM), to escort the body of his deceased brother and attend the funeral. While in Chuuk, Mr. Herman indicated that he would renew his FSM passport. He was scheduled to return to Guam on January 30, 2008.

On February 9, 2008, this Officer met with Mr. Herman's wife, Shirlene Casmiro, who related that he had not returned from Chuuk. She stated that he had renewed his passport but did not receive it from the passport office, which is located in Pohnpei. Ms. Casmiro related that Mr. Herman attempted to return to Guam, however, the immigration officials would not allow him to leave without a passport. She further indicated that Mr. Herman will need approximately two weeks to wait for his passport and will return immediately upon receipt of his passport.

The probation officer respectfully requests that the Court review this report as informational and impose no action at this time. Ms. Casmiro was advised that should Mr. Herman not return, more serious consequences will occur. His progress will continue to be monitored and any further noncompliance will be reported to the Court accordingly.
